Saval Foodservice Joins Jake's Finer Foods to Aid Hurricane Harvey Victims

Maryland business sends donation funds to Houston restaurants

October 25, 2017 – Houston, TX: Jake's Finer Foods announced today that Saval Foodservice, a broad line foodservice distributor in Elkridge, MD, has donated more than $14,000 to help Houston-area restaurants impacted by Hurricane Harvey.

Saval Foodservice employees, along with several Saval Foodservice restaurant customers, organized and led fundraisers that ultimately generated the donations. Jake's Finer Foods worked in partnership with Saval Foodservice in distributing the donations to some of its hardest-hit restaurant customers in the greater Houston area.

"For more than 70 years, the city of Houston has supported us," commented Michael Bench, Jake's Finer Foods President. "It is a blessing and opportunity to give back, and we are especially appreciative of Saval Foodservice's work to support the ongoing recovery in this great city."

"We create lasting relationships with our employees and our customers," said Paul Saval, president and CEO of Saval Foods Corporation. "We are grateful that both groups were so eager to help in our efforts to raise money for Houston, and that Jake's was willing to help coordinate the distribution of the funds."
